1. LIBOR®

Important Information regarding LIBOR®:

LIBOR is in the process of being wound down:

- The only LIBOR settings now published by ICE Benchmark Administration Limited (IBA) are the 1-, 3- and 6-Months USD LIBOR settings. The UK Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), using its powers under the UK Benchmarks Regulation (BMR), is compelling IBA to publish these settings using a changed, unrepresentative “synthetic” methodology.¹
- The FCA intends for the 1-, 3- and 6-Months USD LIBOR settings to cease after publication on 30 September 2024.
- The “synthetic” methodology imposed by the FCA for determining these LIBOR settings is not based on panel bank contributions and the resulting settings are not and will not be representative of the underlying market or economic reality they were previously intended to measure, including for the purposes of the BMR.
- Use of these “synthetic” LIBOR settings by UK-supervised entities in regulated financial contracts, instruments and / or investment fund performance measurement is prohibited under the BMR, subject to the FCA’s permission allowing all legacy use of these settings other than in “Cleared Derivatives (whether directly or indirectly cleared)” (as set out in the FCA’s BMR Article 23C Notice).
- The FCA published the modifications it has made to the BMR as it applies to these “synthetic” LIBOR settings, having regard to the effects of its designations of the settings as “Article 23A benchmarks” under the BMR and the imposition of its changes to the methodology for these settings.

Please note that further updates or changes may take place relating to the wind-down of LIBOR after the date of this document. Please see the FCA’s LIBOR transition website for information regarding how the FCA has exercised, and intends to exercise, its regulatory powers in relation to LIBOR.

Please also see IBA’s LIBOR webpage for further information in relation to LIBOR. Please also read IBA’s benchmark and other information notice and disclaimer.

Please note the use of LIBOR in jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom and by entities subject to the oversight of other regulatory authorities may be restricted or prohibited by law in those jurisdictions and by the requirements of such regulatory authorities.

The material and information located in this document and on IBA’s website is provided for information purposes only and is not intended to be and should not be relied upon as legal, financial or any other form of advice regarding your use of LIBOR. Please ensure you take legal and financial advice in all relevant jurisdictions to ensure you understand and are prepared for the impact of the cessation or unrepresentativeness of any LIBOR settings on you and your counterparties, and to ensure you understand the implications of the exercise of the FCA’s powers under the BMR.

A. Consumers / Users of LIBOR (Master Licence Agreement Schedule B or B2)

Any entity or person that uses new or historical LIBOR rate information in valuation and pricing activities (including but not limited to collateral calculations, interest rate calculations, pricing curves, discount curves and forward curves), and / or uses LIBOR rate information as a reference rate in transactions and financial products (including but not limited to swaps, FRAs, derivatives, notes, bonds, mortgages and loans), or that accesses or provides internal users with access to LIBOR information in connection with the same, is required to enter into a Master Licence Agreement (together with the appropriate Schedule thereto) to obtain a LIBOR Usage Licence.

The fees payable in respect of a LIBOR Usage Licence are set out below.

Effect on your Licence of expected LIBOR cessations:

1. The publication of “synthetic” GBP LIBOR ceased on 28 March 2024. The FCA intends that publication of “synthetic” USD LIBOR will cease on 30 September 2024.
2. Following the cessation of GBP LIBOR on 28 March 2024 and until the cessation of USD LIBOR (expected on 30 September 2024), IBA is treating an “All-Currencies LIBOR Usage Licence” as a “Single-Currency USD LIBOR Usage Licence” subject to the appropriate licence fees for that period (priced as USD 16,000 - or USD 8,000 for a Non-Financial Entity/Institution - on an annualised basis)-.
3. After the cessation of USD LIBOR (expected on 30 September 2024), IBA will treat a “Single-Currency USD LIBOR Usage Licence” as an “All-Currencies Historical Access and Usage Licence” subject to the appropriate licence fees for that period (priced as USD 8,000 - or USD 4,000 for a Non-Financial Entity/Institution - on an annualised basis)-.
4. Following the cessation of GBP LIBOR on 28 March 2024 IBA is treating a “Single-Currency GBP LIBOR Usage Licence” as an “All-Currencies Historical Access and Usage Licence” subject to the appropriate licence fees for that period (priced as USD 8,000 - or USD 4,000 for a Non-Financial Entity/Institution - on an annualised basis)-.
5. IBA is invoicing Customers with an “All-Currencies LIBOR Usage Licence” or a “Single-Currency USD or GBP LIBOR Usage Licence” on the basis of the actual or expected cessation dates set out above. However, IBA reserves the right to amend invoices or to submit further invoices if any expected cessation dates change.

* LIBOR Usage licences include rights to use newly published LIBOR benchmark data for the currency or currencies specified under the licence for internal valuation and pricing activities and as a reference rate in transactions and financial products, and also include rights to access and use historical LIBOR settings published by IBA for all currencies (i.e. data published by ICE for the first time over 7 calendar days earlier) for the same purposes.

“All-Currencies” Usage Licences included specified usage rights in respect of newly published LIBOR data for GBP and USD. “Single-Currency” Usage Licences include (or included) specified usage rights in respect of newly published LIBOR data for USD (or GBP), as specified. See above in relation to the LIBOR settings that IBA expects to be able to publish during 2024.

° Dependent upon the entity’s total asset size as at the end of the preceding financial reporting year; USD amount as stated above or local currency equivalent. Where total assets exceed USD 10bn, the standard fees apply.

* “All Currencies Historical Access and Usage Licences” include rights to access and use historical LIBOR settings published by IBA for all currencies (i.e. data published by ICE for the first time over 7 calendar days earlier) for internal valuation and pricing activities and as a reference rate in transactions and financial products. Licensees who need to continue to be able to access and use historical LIBOR settings and make historical LIBOR settings available to internal users after cessation should ensure they maintain an “All Currencies Historical Access and Usage Licence”. The fees for this type of licence (or the equivalent amount) is waived for former panel banks.

- Please note, upon the permanent cessation of a LIBOR currency, IBA will treat your “Single-Currency LIBOR Usage Licence” or “All-Currencies Historical Access and Usage Licence”, as applicable, as including all historical LIBOR benchmark data in the relevant currency, even if first published fewer than 7 calendar days earlier.

In addition to a LIBOR Usage Licence fee, entities or persons that receive real-time LIBOR rate information from a market data vendor / redistributor may be required to pay end-user fees by such market data vendor / redistributor. Please contact your market data vendor / redistributor for more information.

B. Market Data Vendors / Redistributors (ICE Data Quote Vendor Agreement)

Market data vendors / redistributors that redistribute new or historical LIBOR rate information are required to enter into an ICE Data Quote Vendor Agreement to obtain a LIBOR Redistribution Licence.

The fees payable in respect of a LIBOR Redistribution Licence are set out below.

C. Trading / Clearing Venues (Master Licence Agreement Schedule D)

A trading / clearing venue that creates, lists, trades, clears, settles, and / or otherwise maintains products for which new or historical LIBOR rate information serves directly or indirectly as, or as part of, an input or underlying reference, is required to enter into a Master Licence Agreement (together with the appropriate Schedule thereto) to obtain a LIBOR Trading / Clearing Venue Licence.

The fees payable in respect of a LIBOR Trading / Clearing Venue Licence are set out below.

1. Standardized / Exchange Traded Contracts (e.g. futures)

A transaction-related fee for every lot traded (per side) and / or cleared (per contract), as shown in the following table. A minimum annual fee also applies.

2. Non-Standardized / OTC Contracts (e.g. swaps)

A transaction-related fee, charged on a per-million notional basis in the currency of the transaction traded (per side) and / or cleared (per contract), as shown in the following table. A minimum annual fee also applies.

Per million notional fee	0 to 2 years	0.03	0.01	0.02

Per lot and per million notional fees are invoiced and payable quarterly, in arrears, based on the total cleared / traded volume of each licensed product. Minimum annual fees are invoiced and payable annually, in advance.

3. Historical Access and Use (Post-termination or expiry of a Trading / Clearing Venue Licence)

An Historical Access and Use Licence (Post-termination or expiry of a Trading / Clearing Venue Licence) is available where users require continued access to and use of the historical data in connection with records maintenance, audit, verification, and internal analysis and projections, related to expired, de-listed, terminated or other historical products under their LIBOR Trading / Clearing Venue Licence, with an annual fee set out below:

	Trading and Clearing	Trading Only	Clearing Only
Annual fee	USD 50,000	USD 25,000	USD 25,000

Annual fees are invoiced and payable annually, in advance.

D. Derived Benchmarks (Master Licence Agreement Schedule P)

Any entity or person that derives or maintains an interest rate benchmark for which any new or historical LIBOR rate information serves directly or indirectly as, or as part of, an input or underlying reference is required to enter into a Master Licence Agreement (together with the appropriate Schedule thereto) to obtain a LIBOR Derived Benchmark Licence.

The fees payable in respect of a LIBOR Derived Benchmark Licence are set out below.

- A minimum annual fee of USD 50,000, payable annually in advance, within 30 days of the date on which the licence is effective and thereafter on the 1st January (or next business day) of every year of the term of the licence; and
- 25% of the gross revenues (meaning total amount of sales recognised for the given period, prior to any deductions) received by any Customer Group Company (as defined in the LIBOR derived benchmark licence) (or its agent, contractor or other service provider) in relation to all fees (however described) or other revenue generated from any Customer Group Company’s clients and other users from time to time for the licensing or use of the derived interest rate benchmark (the “Licensed Product Revenue”), to be paid quarterly in arrears, where, in any calendar year, this amount exceeds the minimum annual fee described above.

Where a Customer Group Company sells the derived interest rate benchmark in combination with other products, then the Licensed Product Revenue will be calculated as 25% of the fraction C / (C+D) of the gross revenues received in relation to all fees or other revenue generated for the licensing or use of the combination product (where C = the fair market value of the derived interest rate benchmark if it were sold separately, and D = the fair market value of each other product in the combination product if it were sold separately).

Example: if the combination product is sold for USD 20,000 and consists of the Licensed Product (which would be sold separately for USD 12,000 as a fair market value) and one other product (which would be sold separately for USD 18,000 as a fair market value), then the Licensed Product Revenue would be USD 2,000: i.e. $20,000 \times (12,000 / (12,000 + 18,000)) \times 25\% = 2,000$.

Where a Customer Group Company derives an interest rate benchmark using LIBOR and other inputs, then the percentage of the gross revenues used to calculate the Licensed Product Revenue may be reduced based on the relative values of such inputs and their usage in the derivation, as agreed by IBA in consultation with the Customer.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Customer Group Company does not receive or generate any Licensed Product Revenue for the licensing or use of the derived interest rate benchmark, the fees payable in respect of a LIBOR derived benchmark licence shall be USD 50,000 per annum.

An Historical Access and Use Licence (Post-termination or expiry of a LIBOR Derived Benchmark Licence) is available where users require continued access to and use of the historical data in connection with their LIBOR Derived Benchmark Licence, with an annual fee of USD 25,000.

- 10% of the gross revenues (meaning total amount of sales recognised for the given period, prior to any deductions) received by any Customer Group Company (as defined in the ICE Swap Rate trading / clearing venue licence) (or its agent, contractor or other service provider) in relation to all fees (however described) or other revenue generated from any Customer Group Company's clients and other users from time to time of trading or clearing services in respect of products for which ICE Swap Rate information serves directly or indirectly as, or as part of, an input or underlying reference (the "Licensed Product Revenue"), to be paid quarterly in arrears, where, in any calendar year, this amount exceeds the minimum annual fee described above.

Example: if the combination product is sold for USD 20,000 and consists of the Licensed Product (which would be sold separately for USD 12,000 as a fair market value) and one other product (which would be sold separately for USD 18,000 as a fair market value), then the Licensed Product Revenue would be USD 2,000: i.e. $20,000 \times (12,000 / (12,000 + 18,000)) \times 25\% = 2,000$.

2. LBMA Silver Price

Aggregate of Peak AUM of Products	Licence fee (per quarter)
< USD 100mln	USD 1,000
USD 100mln to USD 500mln	USD 3,000
USD 500mln to USD 1bn	USD 5,000
USD 1bn to USD 10bn	USD 20,000
USD 10bn to USD 25bn	USD 25,000
USD 25 bn to USD 60bn	USD 30,000
> USD 60bn	USD 43,000

Fees are based on the aggregate of the peak amount of all applicable Customer Group Companies’ total Assets Under Management (each as defined in the LBMA Gold Price and / or LBMA Silver Price IPI Licence) during each applicable calendar quarter (the “Peak AUM”) for each Product that is subject to an IPI Licence. The Peak AUM for each Product shall be determined separately for each calendar quarter and be utilized for purposes of calculating the Licence fees for each quarter, unless determined at any other time as agreed to by the parties in writing.

Fees are invoiced and payable quarterly, in arrears.

To the extent that a Product is calculated in part from information other than the LBMA Gold Price or the LBMA Silver Price, as applicable, the Peak AUM for that Product shall be pro-rated, based upon the percentage that the LBMA Gold Price or the LBMA Silver Price, as applicable, represents in the calculation of the Product, as notified by the customer to IBA pursuant to the LBMA Gold Price and / or LBMA Silver Price IPI Licence.

E. Derived Benchmarks (Master Licence Agreement Schedule R)

Any entity or person that derives or maintains an index or benchmark for which any new or historical LBMA Gold Price and / or LBMA Silver Price information serves directly or indirectly as, or as part of, an input or underlying reference is required to enter into a Master Licence Agreement (together with the appropriate Schedule thereto) to obtain an LBMA Precious Metals Derived Index Licence.

The fees payable in respect of an LBMA Precious Metals Derived Index Licence are set out below.

- A minimum annual fee of USD 25,000, payable annually in advance within 30 days of the date on which the licence is effective and thereafter on the 1st January (or next business day) of every year of the term of the licence; and
- 25% of the gross revenues (meaning total amount of sales recognised for the given period, prior to any deductions) received by any Customer Group Company (as defined in the LBMA Precious Metals Derived Index Licence) (or its agent, contractor or other service provider) in relation to all fees (however described) or other revenue generated from any Customer Group Company's clients and other users from time to time for the licensing or use of the derived interest rate benchmark (the "Licensed Product Revenue"), to be paid quarterly in arrears, where, in any calendar year, this amount exceeds the minimum annual fee described above.

Where a Customer Group Company sells the Licensed Product in combination with other products, then the Licensed Product Revenue will be calculated as 25% of the fraction $C / (C+D)$ of the gross revenues received in relation to all fees or other revenue generated for the licensing or use of the combination product (where C = the fair market value of the Licensed Product if it were sold separately, and D = the fair market value of each other product in the combination product if it were sold separately).

Example: if the combination product is sold for USD 20,000 and consists of the Licensed Product (which would be sold separately for USD 12,000 as a fair market value) and one other product (which would be sold separately for USD 18,000 as a fair market value), then the Licensed Product Revenue would be USD 2,000: i.e. $20,000 \times (12,000 / (12,000 + 18,000)) \times 25\% = 2,000$.

Where a Customer Group Company derives a Licensed Product using LBMA Gold Price and / or LBMA Silver Price information and Other Inputs, then the percentage of the gross revenues used to calculate the Licensed Product Revenue may be reduced based on the relative values of such inputs and their usage in the derivation, as agreed by IBA in consultation with the Customer.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Customer Group Company does not receive or generate any Licensed Product Revenue for the licensing or use of the Licensed Product, the fees payable in respect of an LBMA Precious Metals Derived Index Licence shall be USD 25,000 per annum.

4. ISDA SIMM (Master Licence Agreement Schedule N)

* A Customer (as defined in the ISDA SIMM Crowdsourcing Facility Usage Licence) using ISDA SIMM Crowdsourcing Facility information will, subject to the following sentence, be treated as falling in Initial Margin Phase 1/2/3/4/5/6 based on a notification by ISDA to IBA of ISDA's classification of that Customer by reference to those Initial Margin Phases. Where two or more Customer Group Companies (as defined in the ISDA SIMM Crowdsourcing Facility usage licence) are using ISDA SIMM Crowdsourcing Facility information under an ISDA SIMM Crowdsourcing Facility Usage Licence with a Customer, then the Customer will be treated as falling in the earliest Initial Margin Phase (i.e. the numerically lowest in the above table) applicable to any such Customer Group Company. The Initial Margin Phase 1/2/3/4/5/6 is a reference to the application, in phases over time, of the initial margin requirements under relevant regulations to entities having outstanding aggregate average notional amounts ("AANA") of non-centrally cleared OTC derivatives (determined across various group entities) exceeding certain thresholds at relevant times. For example, the EU's initial margin requirements for entities belonging to a group with an AANA exceeding EUR 3tn (which was Phase 1) became applicable on 4 February 2017.

ICE Benchmark Administration Limited (IBA) is authorised and regulated by the UK Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) for the regulated activity of administering a benchmark under the UK Benchmarks Regulation.

IBA licenses benchmark and other information to users for purposes which may include: valuation and pricing activities, use as a reference rate in transactions and for the creation of financial products; redistribution to third parties; trading and clearing activities; historical access; and the issuance of exchange traded products. IBA reserves all rights in this benchmark and other information and in the methodologies and other information disclosed in this document and on IBA's website, and in the copyright in this document and those on IBA's website. None of IBA's benchmark and other information may be used without a written licence from IBA and such benchmark and other information is provided solely for the purposes specified in the relevant licence.

IBA does not provide legal, financial, tax or investment advice, or recommendations regarding securities and no publication of benchmark and other information should be taken as constituting legal, financial, tax or investment advice or a recommendation of securities, an invitation or inducement to engage in any investment activity, including any securities transaction, or a financial promotion.

As a result, IBA is not responsible for carrying out any target market assessment or supplying any key information document in relation to its benchmark or other information or otherwise. The material and information located in this document and on IBA's website is provided for information purposes only. IBA is not responsible for and makes no representation regarding the appropriateness or suitability of using, or investing in any financial instrument or entering into any contract linked to, IBA's benchmark or other information and any decision to engage in such use or to invest in any such instrument or enter into any such contract should not be made in reliance on IBA's benchmark or other information. Any of: (i) the basis or methodology for calculation or determination, (ii) the input data used for calculation or determination, (iii) the underlying economic reality or market represented or measured, (iv) the name, or (v) the administrator, in respect of any benchmark or other information may change, including, without limitation, pursuant to applicable law, an order of a regulatory or other competent authority or procedures undertaken in accordance with applicable laws, which may result in short-term or long-term changes to such benchmark or other information or to their characteristics, including their representativeness. The application of laws and regulations to benchmark or other information may be subject to modifications pursuant to applicable law and/or an order of a regulatory or other competent authority. The input data required to generate a benchmark or other information may become less available or may cease to be available altogether, which could impact the determination of the benchmark or other information (such as involving the use of a lower level of a benchmark methodology) and could result in an administrator being unable to calculate and publish the benchmark or other information in accordance with the relevant benchmark methodology. Benchmark or other information may be expanded (for example to cover more currencies or tenors), reduced, changed, discontinued or terminated at any time, including, without limitation, pursuant to applicable law, an order of a regulatory or other competent authority or procedures undertaken in accordance with applicable law, or because of other factors beyond IBA's control. Benchmark or other information may cease to be representative of the economic reality or underlying market that they are or were intended to measure or represent, but that may not be grounds for IBA invoking a contingency procedure and, in the case of a benchmark listed as a critical benchmark, IBA may be required, pursuant to applicable laws or an order of a regulatory or other competent authority, to make changes and/or continue to publish the affected benchmark or other information. Use of a benchmark or other information may also be prohibited or restricted under applicable laws and regulation.

Users of IBA's benchmark or other information should produce and maintain robust written fallback provisions and plans setting out the actions that would be taken in the event of material changes to or cessation of the relevant benchmark or other information. These should include, where feasible and appropriate, specifying alternative benchmarks that could be referenced as a substitute with reasons as to why they are suitable alternatives. Various factors, including those beyond IBA's control, might necessitate material changes to or cessation of a benchmark or other information, including changes resulting in a benchmark becoming unrepresentative. Please ensure that any financial instrument or contract that you invest in or are a party to linked to IBA's benchmark or other information contains such provisions and plans and that you consider the potential impact on any relevant financial instrument or contract of a material change to, unrepresentativeness or cessation of, the relevant benchmark or other information.

Historical benchmark and other information may not be indicative of future information or performance. None of IBA, Intercontinental Exchange, Inc. (ICE), or any third party that provides data used to administer or determine any benchmark and other information (a Data Provider), or any of its or their affiliates, makes any claim, prediction, warranty or representation whatsoever, expressly or impliedly, as to the timeliness, accuracy or completeness of its benchmark or other information, the results to be obtained from the use of its benchmark or other information, or as to the appropriateness or suitability of any such benchmark or other information for any particular purpose to which it might be put.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, none of IBA, ICE or any Data Provider, or any of its or their affiliates will be liable in contract or tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty or nuisance or under antitrust laws, misrepresentation or otherwise, in respect of any inaccuracies, errors, omissions, delays, failures, cessations or changes (material or otherwise) in IBA's benchmark and other information, or for any damage, expense or other loss (whether direct or indirect) you may suffer arising out of or in connection with IBA's benchmark and other information or any reliance you may place upon it. All implied terms, conditions and warranties, including without limitation as to quality, merchantability, fitness for purpose, title or non-infringement, in relation to IBA's benchmark and other information are hereby excluded to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.
